1978 Officers

The Class of '78" got off to an excellent start as juniors that gained momentum when they were seniors too.

As juniors, they sponsored numerous car washes, bake sales and dances to raise money for their senior year.

The class brought many changes rather than stick to tradition. The football team of '78 were City Co Champs and compiled a statistical record that snapped a ten year string of not so fortunate teams. In regard to breaking tradition a new site for the Senior Class Trip was chosen, and off we went to Hershey Chocolate World.

In our steel valley this has not been a successful year due to lay-offs, loss of jobs and bad weather. Despite all these problems which affected our parents, the year to us was still a success.

The Seniors really showed enthusiasm in making the best of their year. A bright side of the year was the Senior Mixer when seniors did just that — mix. The Variety Show was an aura of "Fantasy" and happiness. Many had good times when they supported these functions. The anticipated event, the Prom, was an evening of enchantment.

The year was climaxed as proud seniors strided to receive their diplomas. The officers that led the class to achieve this are seated — President Sanford Washington, Vice-President, Patricia Duke; standing Treasurer, Debbie Lewis, Secretary, Michelle Watkins.

1978 Class Officers

Senior Advisory Board

The Senior Advisory Board for the Class of seventy-eight consisted of a group of young ladies and gentlemen selected by the class officers. Their purpose was to help make decisions and keep others informed of what was going on; they also tried to encourage more seniors to participate by having money making projects such as car washes, a dance in the cafeteria and sponsored the sale of announcements.

The Warrior Staff is very sorry that so many seniors are not pictured in this yearbook. Unfortunately, they did not turn their "glossies" in on time. You will find their names listed in the directory.

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

Senior Class of 1978

Once again, another year has closed another class is graduated from South High School. This has been a gratifying school year for me and for you. South High ranks as one of the best high schools in Youngstown. The full credit goes to the student body, teachers, maintenance staff, community, administrators, and all of the people associated with South High. South High excelled in sports, academic achievement, and was well represented in all areas throughout the city and state.

A very special "thank you" to the Senior Class. You helped to make my second year at South a pleasant experience. I feel confident that it was a rewarding year for you. Lots of luck and hard work in every level you attempt in the future. I will always remember you.

Sincerely yours,
Richard DeVincentis

Varsity Football Game

Practice made perfect — well almost

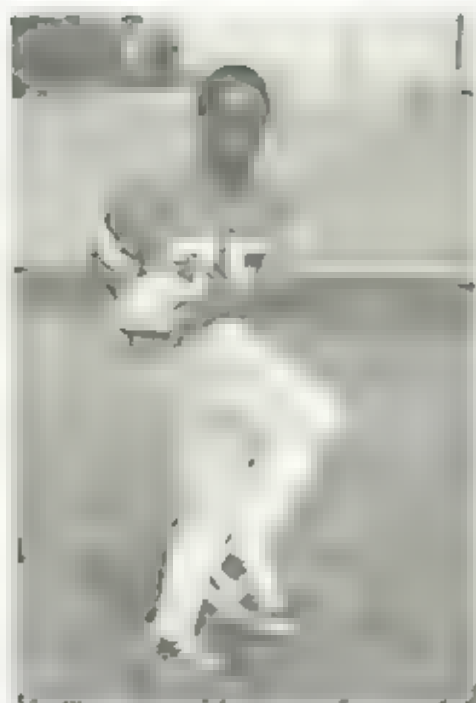

After defeats in the early part of the season, we came back to finish with a tie for city series championship under the guidance of our new coach Robert Stoops. We even learned to sing the old South High Fight Song which we performed admirably at the homecoming assembly where the young ladies we had picked were crowned as the first beauties of the crowd at dear old South.

At least we tried for number one

Girls, Girls

What would football players, or for that matter any other sportsmen do without lots of pretty young ladies to cheer them on to victory? At South we had a Pom Pom Squad which followed the team to every game to provide pep, enthusiasm, and half-time entertainment. These girls, pictured above were Michelle Adkins, Crystal Livas, Veronica Veal, Sherri Brown, Tamra Pegues, Kim Logan, Linda Little, Karen Scott, Aretha Pearson, Sandra Robbins and Toni McWilson.

At the right are the Varsity Cheerleaders who lead the crowd at every game. They were Denise Fears, Valerie Henderson, Schondra Christian, Trina Turner, Yvonne Adair, and Joyce Bryant.

and More Girls

Also providing an enthusiastic audience with entertainment at half-time were the bevy of beauties who were the South High Majorettes. These girls were Lince Carter, Toni Spragner, Eileen Smith, Melinda Spencer, Mary Williamson, Ella Tubbs, Ellicia Page, and Rose Clyburn.

If playing football wasn't your thing then you could take to the greens of the golf course. For this group of young men the sport gave them a hobby which might well last long after high school.

Cross Country

Another sport available in the fall was Cross Country Running. This activity consisted of running over a pre-determined course set by a group of coaches. Participants usually ran over golf courses, through woods and parks, and over trails. The course which was two and one half miles long this year will be increased to three miles in the fall of 1978.

Our Cross Country Team finished 15th in the meet held at Boardman and defeated Cardinal Mooney. Top runner was Eric Brantley who was MVP in both his junior and senior years.

Cross Country Team

Winter, Cold and Snowy

Brought basketball to replace football as king, and a whole new set of momentary heroes. At Christmas time we had a party in the cafeteria complete with tree and Galen Robinson in the form of Santa. Our clubs and organizations went into full swing. Student Council sponsored a canned goods drive and the second Homecoming to the basketball team. With only eight days of school in session between December 20 and February 1, many activities had to be postponed and rescheduled, but we enjoyed them when they came.

Baseball

All aboard for the big game

The baseball season of 1978 will not be remembered as the most successful season in South High baseball history and fans, players and coaches will long remember some of the individual performances of the players.

Who can forget Dave Smith's plays at first base or his superb pitching performance against Niles in the tournament. The type of performance the MVP's are made of. How about Orlando Colon's defensive work at second base setting a school record for chances by a second baseman or Robert Jackson and Tony Petrucci's exciting offensive work with the bat and on the basepaths. How about Gary Davis's defensive play behind the plate or Harlan Lewis in centerfield? And then there was George Habib's pitching and batting which earned him the title "rookie of the year." Michael Carns and James Trimble's relief pitching! How about Angel "Papito" Romero's .421 batting average and his making Al City II might have been more agony of defeat than the thrill of victory as a team but the individuals who played the game know they gave their all and that's important in athletics.

Track and Field

Once again the South High track and field men proved themselves superior. Our young men's track team finished first in the City Series for the third straight year, and several young men placed high in state competition for Young Men

Tennis

Last, but definitely not the least of the spring sports offerings was tennis. Coached by Mr. William Nett, this group of young people competed against similar teams from schools throughout the area. Masters of the court included Dehiso Jones, Carlos Garcia, Dale Fedor, Rishdena Hartsoe, Tom Payne, Marlin White, Maria Sammonas, Paul Bell, Keith Harris, and Michelle Adkins.

Variety Show '78

Fantasy

In the entertainment area the first feature of the spring season was a world of "fantasy" in the form of the annual Variety Show at the Field House. On the evening of April 28, this building, normally a gymnasium, took on a fantastic aura transformed by the art work of Tommy Brooks and Mike Bennett. Toni Miller was chairman of the production of the stage show which showed off the talents of many young people from South and other area high schools. This year there was even a guest Emcee, Duane Turnage sponsored by Masters' Tuxedo.

National Honor Society

Each year in the spring junior and senior students who meet the criteria of scholarship, character, leadership, and service are inducted into our chapter of the National Honor Society. The ceremony was held in the auditorium on May 1, 1978 and was followed by a reception for these honor students, their parents, and teachers. Pictured on the next page are young people who were invested this year.

Marching Band

The South Band is made up of students from South and from Hillman and Princeton Jr. High Schools. They performed in concert in the spring as well as at several football games and at commencement exercises. They are shown here sporting the new uniforms in the Memorial Day parade in downtown Youngstown. They had their own squad of majorettes led by Cathy Treadwell. Members from South were John Carnathan, Earl Darby, Cynthia Gibbs, Armilla Henderson, Artis Henderson, Eric Lynn, Darryl Madison, Knute Madison, Dennis Riggins, Jesus Rosa, William Rosa, Patricia Stout, Robert Stout, Glenn Tarpley, Kevin Tarpley, Marlin White, and David Woods.

Memorial Day Parade

Our Big Day Arrived ...

Graduation! June 2, 1978

At last the day we had been waiting for came. Our year was over, and 254 of us had made it to the ceremony when we would receive the coveted diploma. We marched into the Field House to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," under the proud and happy eyes of our parents, relatives, and friends. We listened to speeches by Valedictorian Pamela Goodwine and Co-Salutatorians Linda Griffen and Valerie Thompson. Elder Wagner gave us his blessing. Then it was time.

Mrs. Hooks took over the podium. Sharon Abrams. Yvonne Adair. One by one she read the names on the class role. One by one we proudly marched across the front to receive our diplomas from Superintendent Pegues and Board of Education member Mrs. Jennie Delasandro. Eugene Yee Thomas Young. The last name on the list had been called and we were high school graduates. Back to our places. Miss Celia Hult sang the alma mater, "Dear South to Thee," and we threw our hats into the air in joyous celebration. The Class of '78 had left its mark on the halls of South High School.

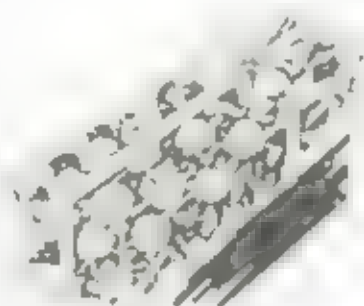

Receiving the piece of paper that said we were graduated!

FACING GRADUATION

Faces of old and faces of new,
People we know and people we knew.
Growing together then drifting apart
Always an ending and now a new start.
At graduation we all grow nearer
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as we say our final goodbye,
One last embrace and one more cry,
A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will"
A "remember when" but, better still,
A place in my heart, you'll always stay,
This is what's said as we go our own way

Laura Rollins
